LITTLE JOTTINGS BY THE WAY.

Mr. Geo. Sleet, a tenant of Mr. Colon M. Jones, shot and killed a crane, on Friday, which measured six feet from tip to tip of its wings, and was about seven feet high.

Things were made lively on the St. Clair street bridge, on Saturday, when a street car, a wagon load of cheering children and a hack came together. The horses attached to the carriage became alarmed and backed around breaking the tongue of the hack. Gentlemen passing assisted the driver to control the horses, and thus prevented further damage. The team belonged to Mr. L. S. Graham and were conveying passengers from the new Capitol grounds back into the city. Things looked decidedly scary for a while.

The pickpocket was considerably in evidence on Saturday in the big crowd. Maj. Cabell Bullock, Dr. J. R. McKee, Mr. Geo. P. McCann, Mr. ———— Sadduth, and a number of others, whose names we did not learn, were "touched" for various sums, none, however, over $25. In the big crowd it was "dead easy" for the light-fingered gentry.

Another delightful excursion will be run by the F. & C. and Q. & C. Railways to Cincinnati tomorrow. The fare is only $1.25 for the round trip. See ad. for particulars.

The County Unit Law having become effective, the Anti-Saloon League are arranging to have an election held to prohibit the sale of liquors in nearly every county in the State.

Harrodsburg went "dry" last week by a majority of 808 votes.

Even the colored ward went 60 against whisky.

The Second Regiment Band just "did themselves proud" on Saturday. Their music was simply fine. It is second to no band in the State. Our big friend, Capt. John Brady, looked "too cute," with his big bear skin hat on.

Miss M. Willie Ross, of Louisville, rendered delightful music on the violin at the First Baptist Church, on Sunday night. She held the big audience present in profound attention. There was not a single false note in her performance.

We are glad to be able to say that there was but very, very little drunkenness evident in the big crowd on Saturday and no disorder. It is a thing for congratulation.

The lively stables were crowded with horses and vehicles of all kinds, and, owing to their careful management every thing went off smoothly and nicely.

Henry county held an election under the County Unit Local Option Law, on Saturday last, and went "dry" 1,200 majority.

It will be remembered that a recently released convict from Knox county, by the name of General Williams, was tried for lunacy in the county court about two weeks since because he had declared he was going to return home and kill the man who had testified against him when he was sent up. Williams attempted to carry out his threat on Saturday and succeeded in wounding the man, but was himself, and his chum (who was with him), killed in resisting arrest by the sheriff and posse in Knox county.

The handsome property known as "Point Breeze," overlooking the city and the new capitol, from the south, was sold by Messrs. L. B. Marshall & Co., real estate agents, to a syndicate, on Monday, for the neat sum of $20,000. The purpose of the syndicate is to divide the property into good-sized building lots.

Hon. John M. Patterson, the Governor of Ohio, elected last fall, died at his home in Milford, a suburb of Cincinnati, on Monday last. He was an upright, honorable, Christian gentleman, and will be a great loss to his State. He was a leading member of the Methodist Church. His health had been poor for a long time, and it was a great mistake his undertaking the campaign for Governor.

The infamous outrages perpetrated upon the Jews in Russia still continue. No wonder that country is in the throes of anarchy and dissolution. The curse of an avenging God is surely falling upon Russia for allowing such things.

Our farmers are complaining of "too much rain," just as they were about "everything will be ruined for want of rain" about two weeks ago.

The forty-sixth star has been added to the field of "Old Glory's" galaxy of stars. President Roosevelt has signed the bill admitting Oklahoma and Indian Territory as the State of Oklahoma. There was great rejoicing when the news was received in those territories.

The small town of Tyrone, Anderson county, went "wet," on Monday, by a vote of 147 to 24. Two big distilleries in the town and two near by employ about all the inhabitants of the town.

A singular thing happened to

Mr. Jos. H. Sheets, last week. He lives in the Benson neighborhood. Thirty-three years ago he was married, and that day gave to his wife a heavy gold ring, with the inscription on the inside "Joe to Sallie." Shortly after their marriage Mrs. Sheets was so unfortunate as to lose the ring. She searched everywhere for it without avail. Last week Mr. Sheets was doing some work near a hen-house and saw something shining on the ground. He went and picked it up and found that it was the ring which his first wife had lost thirty-three years before. It was bright and in good condition. The good woman has been dead many years.

Judge Thos. H. Paynter, now Judge of the Court of Appeals, and recently elected U. S. Senator, has informed the Governor that he will resign his position on the Appellate bench August 1st. The Governor has announced that Judge J. M. Lassing, of the Boone Circuit Court, will be appointed to serve until another judge can be elected in November.

This is in accord with the program as announced when Judge Paynter was elected Senator.

Jesse Turner, a colored youth, stole a bicycle from Mr. Steele Reading, and was arrested by Officer H. Davis Harrod, on Tuesday. Turner sold the bike to Mr. Gordon, the second-hand man, and then went to Mr. Reading's store and paid him a bill for a quarter, which he owed him.

Chairman John D. Griffin has issued a call for a Democratic Mass Meeting to appoint delegates to the Seventh District Democratic Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress. The mass meeting will be held at the courthouse on Tuesday, July 10th.

Mrs. Kate W. Buckley has sold one-half of her lot, on Ann street, to Mr. W. J. Williams, the laundry man, consideration $1,700.

A MIRACULOUS CURE.

The following statement by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, Pa., will interest parent and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." Its the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. Guaranteed. 50c and $1.00 at all druggists.

UP-TO-DATE SERVICE.

We can not too highly commend the service rendered by the Traction Company on Saturday last. Every car was put in service to the new capitol grounds, and the cars run promptly and regularly.

Mr. John D. Sallee certainly has proved the right man in the right place, and Frankfort now has a street car service, in fact as well as in name.

SUPERIORITY PROVES ITSELF.

The sincerest tribute that can be paid to superiority is imitation. The many imitations of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve that are now before the public prove it the best. Ask for DeWitt's. Good for burns, scalds, chafed skin, eczema, itches, cuts, bruises, boils and piles. Highly recommended and reliable. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

I.
The skies were blue, all hearts were true,
And loyal dames in white attired;
Perfume of roses filled the air,
And nature seemed so fair—so fair,
The day prepared to be admired!

II.
The colors red waved overhead,
"Old glory" floated far and wide;
The music rang in cadence grand,
Kentucky's children graced the stand,
"Home-Coming" gladly replied!

III.
Those crowned heads of white and grey,
Bowed reverently—the prayer was glad;
Each voice proclaimed its message sweet,
The ages ever shall repeat—
Life's history, so brave—so sad.

IV.
The trowel silver shining, bright,
Touched mortar to the conscious stone;
By hand of Governor Beckham: He
Was voiced by roar of musketry,
And cannon's roar of "Home Sweet Home."

V.
It was an hour of gracious power,
Kentucky's greatness set in state;
Her love, her honor, filled each heart,
Her capital a glorious gate—
Of freedom's seal—involute!

EVER WATCHFUL.

A Little Care Will Save Many Frankfort Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions.
See that they have the amber hue of health.
The discharge not excessive or infrequent.
Contain no "brick-dust like" sediment.
Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick.
C. H. Luckett, night clerk at the Hotel Fleming, Holmes St., says: "I was troubled for some time with marked symptoms of kidney ailment, principally in connection with the kidney secretions which at times were very annoying and distressing. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and so highly recommended that it was with hopes that they might help me that I went to J. W. Gayle's drug store and got a box. I used them as directed and found that they benefited me in every way, so much so that I have recommended them to my friends on several occasions and will do so whenever I can."

"You may refer to me at any time as having used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results, and I hope it may be the means of relieving others who may be suffering from the common complaint, kidney trouble."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FOURTH OF JULY AT LEXINGTON.

How are you going to celebrate the Fourth of July?
By going to Lexington, of course.
That is just what they all say.
Everybody wants to see the big airship make its flight and strive for the world's record for long distance aerial flights.

At great expense Prof. Leslie B. Haddock, of Haverhill, Mass., has been engaged to bring his "triumph of the air," the famous airship, "Bullet," and in the presence of all the spectators he will cause the big machine to rise from the ground to the height of 2,000 feet, fly over the city of Lexington, encircle about it, return and descend to the starting point, guiding and controlling the bird-like vehicle at will.

Prof. Haddock is now at New Orleans filling an engagement in that city. He will leave for Lexington June 27th on a special train, carrying himself, his assistants and the big ship. This is to give him ample time to prepare everything for the flight through the air. He will show the people of Kentucky that the problem of aerial navigation has been solved. He holds the world's record for 32 miles and will make an effort to lower it here.

Now a word about the airship itself. It is the most wonderful and most powerful airship ever constructed. The silk envelope is 90 feet long and 40 feet in diameter. It has a gas capacity of 20,000 cubic feet. The passenger car is 45 feet long and has a carrying capacity of 1,500 pounds. The motive power is derived from an engine of special design, two-cylinder, four-cycle type, hydro-carbonate, with ten-horse power. It is built principally of aluminum and steel, weighs 72 pounds and has a revolution of 2,500 per minute. The entire ship is steered by a long, silken rudder and can turn a complete circle within two lengths of the ship itself. The machine, when ready for flight, weighs 800 pounds.

Most people have read about airships and the wonders they can and have accomplished. Here is an opportunity to see one in actual operation and watch its marvelous flight through the air. It is the first ever brought to Kentucky, and it will be a treat no one can afford to miss.

In addition to this big attraction, which is enough in itself, there will be running races, trotting races, bicycle races, dancing, music, the latter furnished by a band and orchestra, fireworks and numerous features brought together at great expense. The principal object is to supply the means for a general celebration of the Nation's birthday that is out of the ordinary, interesting and attractive.

The entire program will be opened with a monster parade in which several bands will take part. In this parade there will be merchants and manufacturers floats of beautiful design, civic bodies in line, fraternal organizations and the military. The parade will furnish many humorous features, and it will be carried through the principal streets of the city to the Fair Grounds.

No one can afford to miss this treat. Get in the band wagon and join the hosts that will move in Lexington on that day. For further information address the Lexington Amusement Co., 115 South Mill Street, or John R. Charlesworth, Press Agent.

Most disgusting skin eruptions, scrofula, pimples, rashes, etc., are due to impure blood. Burdock Blood Bitters is a cleansing blood tonic. Makes you clear-eyed, clear-brained, clear-skinned.

A GREAT GATHERING OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL WORKERS.

Next Friday, June 29th, at Bridgeport, the Sunday-school workers will gather from all over the county. There is yet time for schools to elect delegates and send report if they have not already done so. The program will be on at 9:45 a. m., and all are urged to be present and stay till the close at 4 p. m.
State Worker, Rev. C. C. Green, of Louisville, an expert in Sunday-school work, will have general charge of the services. Look for complete program on another page of this issue of the Roundabout. It is greatly desired that every school in the county be represented at this convention.

I have caused my land on Arlington Heights, extending from the State Arsenal lot east to Mr. Ridel's lot, laid out on the ground in convenient lots fronting on new avenues to be opened as and when the lots shall be sold; and I have at my office a plat made by R. A. Frazier, City Engineer, showing the location and dimensions of the lots and proposed streets and alleys, to which I invite the attention of those desiring to purchase lots for residence purposes.
The Water Co. and Gas Co. will extend their mains as the lots are sold, and sewer connection can be readily made.
The location of these lots can not be surpassed for healthfulness and the beauty of scenery.
I will take pleasure in showing the lots to all persons desiring to purchase, and will make known the prices and terms of sale on application to me.

STAMPING GROUND.

Miss Beatrice Duval, of Cincinnati visited here last Saturday.
Mrs. Sallie Ann Glass, who is 92 years of age, attended church on Sunday last. She is enjoying remarkably good health. She is also the next to the oldest person in our community. Miss Clarissa Owen is 93 years old.

Hen. J. C. C. Black, of Augusta, Ga., but formerly of this place, was one of the Home-Comers. He is enjoying fine health.

Mr. Henderson Hawkins, Mr. Thos. R. Hill, wife and daughter, of Flensburg, Mo., attended the "Home-Coming" ceremonies in Louisville last week and afterwards visited Rev. G. W. Hill. This is the first time Mr. Hill has been in Kentucky in 40 years.

A unfortunate accident caused Mr. J. S. Perry to lose all four fingers of his left hand. On Thursday last his hand was caught in the planing machine, at his carpenter shop, and the fingers so badly mangled, that Dr. John A. Lewis, of Georgetown, was forced to amputate them at the knuckles.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 23, 1906

CORNERSTONE LAID.

Tremendous Crowd From All Parts of the State and Country Present.

Saturday last was an ideal day for the ceremonies attendant upon the laying of the cornerstone of the new Capitol.

Under the direction of Chief Marshal John W. Milam, the procession was formed on Broadway street at about 11:15 o'clock a. m. (the formation being delayed on account of the non-arrival of the trains with distinguished visitors on board).

After the various bodies had been arranged in order the line of march, as given in our last issue, was followed, terminating at the new Capitol.

Gen. D. W. Lindsey, as master of ceremonies, outlined the proceedings, and called upon the chorus of 200 voices, under the leadership of Mr. J. S. Weathers, to sing "America." The Second Regiment Band led the music, and as the beautiful words rang out from the vast crowd, it was a scene that stirred the hearts of all.

At the conclusion of the song, Rev. Dr. J. McC. Blayney, of Danville (former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of this city, and one of the most efficient of the famous citizens' committee on the capitol question), invoked the Divine blessing.

Hon. H. V. McChesney, Secretary of State, and one of the Capitol Commission, then delivered a brilliant and able address.

At the conclusion of this address, after "Dixie," by the band, Hon. William Lindsay, ex-Senator and ex-Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals (now a resident of New York City), made an able scholarly and eloquent address, worthy of the man and the occasion, in which he urged the Kentucky of to-day to keep high the standard of loyalty, liberty-loving and law-abiding citizenship.

At the conclusion of Judge Lindsay's oration, the cornerstone was laid by Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, after a brief and appropriate address, he using the silver trowel furnished by Mr. Frank G. Stagg.

Dr. E. E. Hume, Mayor of Frankfort, deposited the copper box, containing the following articles, in the receptacle designed for it:

Docket of the Court of Appeals.
Official Manual of Kentucky, containing list of members of the Legislature that voted for the Capitol Appropriation.

List of attorneys of the Frankfort bar, 1906.

List of churches of Frankfort and their ministers.

Roster of physicians of Frankfort and Franklin county.

List of city officials of Frankfort.

Frankfort Roundabout.
Kentucky State Journal.

Jaws

Tightly Locked From Nervous Spasms.

Physicians Could Not Prevent Fits.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured My Wife.

Dr. Miles' Nervine has been successfully tried in thousands of cases of nervous disorders, but never has it made a better record than when used in the treatment of fits or spasms. Thousands of testimonials prove this, and in nearly every instance the writer has stated that the fits ceased after the first dose of Nervine was given. The statement is repeated in the following:

"Seven years ago my wife commenced having spasms or fits and I called in my home physician and he said she was paralyzed. He rubbed her with salt water and gave her calomel and she eventually got some better, but in a short time she had another attack. She was confined to her bed for three months and the doctor could not help her. She had fits frequently, some times very severe. Her hands would clasp so we could not open them and she finally got so her jaws would become locked. Finally I saw the doctor was doing her no good and ordered a bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. She received so much benefit from the first bottle that I got some more. She has taken a number of bottles but has never had a fit since taking the first dose. She also thinks very highly of Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and is never without them. If there is any way of making this testimonial stronger do so because of the good the Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine did my wife."—WM. V. ALLEN, F. M., Ellettsville, Ind.

After the cap to the cornerstone had been duly placed, Gov. Beckham spreading the mortar, Ex-Gov. and Senator Jas. B. McCrery made a short and eloquent address.

The choir and band then sung "My Old Kentucky Home," closing amid tumultuous applause.

Rev. C. R. Hudson, pastor of the Christian Church, pronounced the benediction, and the tremendous crowd melted away as by magic.

Altogether it was a red letter day for Frankfort and her dear people.

True Kentucky hospitality was extended on all hands. Numbers of our good women prepared to entertain five or six times as many people as came to their homes. This last was owing, to a great degree, to the fact that the exercises lasted until the special train for Louisville, which had brought a big crowd, was scheduled to leave and the excursionists could not remain to enjoy the genuine Frankfort hospitality.

It was a source of great regret that the venerable and beloved ex-Gov. P. H. Leslie, who was present, could not remain to make even a short address, but was called away to attend the closing of the "Home-Coming" exercises in Louisville.

The luncheon at the Elks Home, prepared by the ladies committee, would have fed five times as many persons as actually attended.

The crowd present was estimated (leaving out home people) at from 15,000 to 20,000 people, and was the largest ever present here except on "Centennial Day," and the inauguration of Gov. W. O. Bradley in 1890.

A WESTERN WONDER.

There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of Consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure Cough and Cold cure. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

DANGEROUSLY SHOT.

While Mr. Clay Smith, son of Mr. Jas. F. Smith (a city letter carrier), was cleaning a pistol, on Sunday afternoon, it was accidentally discharged, inflicting a dangerous wound in the right side, just above the hip bone.

Drs. James and Goodrich were summoned and did all they could for the young man, but were unable to locate the ball.

WORRY WEARS YOU OUT.

There is no need worrying along in discomfort because of a disordered digestion. Get a bottle of Kodol for dyspepsia, and see what it will do for you. Kodol not only digests what you eat and gives that tired stomach a needed rest, but is a corrective of the greatest efficiency. Kodol relieves indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, flatulence, and sour stomach. Kodol will make your stomach young and healthy again. You will worry just in the proportion that your stomach worries you. Worry means the loss of ability to do your best. Worry is to be avoided at all times. Kodol will take the worry out of your stomach. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

On Saturday last the two little boys of Mr. B. Todd Crutcher, of this office, John and Todd, and their little cousin, Robert McKinney, partook of canned salmon and ice cream, at the residence of Mrs. M. B. McKinney, in this city, and were taken violently ill in a short while.

Dr. Flora Mastin was immediately summoned and worked with the little fellows for several hours and finally relieved them, although the little McKinney boy and Mr. Crutcher's youngest child, Todd, came very near to death.

Potomac poison, was ascribed as the cause by Dr. Mastin.

But for the fact that Dr. Mastin was on hand quickly with proper remedies all three of the children would have died.

It was a very narrow escape even then.

A hacking cough is most annoying. One Minute Cough Cure draws the inflammation out of the throat, chest and lungs. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

THE AMENITIES OF WAR.

By Howard Henderson, D. D.

"Grim-visaged war" sometimes "smooths its wrinkled front" and becomes amene. The soldier stands for a principle, a cause and not for a personal animosity. He is hostile to the gun of his antagonist, but not to the man behind it. At an open camp fire of a G. A. R. Post, a wounded Confederate present was invited to a seat beside the commander, and subsequently called out for a speech. Responding, he said: "I cherish no hatreds born of war, the man who shot me had nothing against me, he shot at the South and I chanced to be in the way of his bullet. If he were here I would take him by the hand as a comrade."

GENERAL GRANT.
There never was a time when General Grant, in battle, would not have hewn down with his saber, or trampled with the hoofs of his horse at "butternut" with arms in his hand, but the moment the bugle ceased to bray and the war-drum to throb he was transformed into a comrade and stooped with lips of mercy to kiss the chains of his captive. How gracious his bearing toward General Lee when he had struck down his sword! Being told that a popular lecturer had related that when the chieftains met to consummate the surrender, General Lee offered his hand, when Grant interposed, saying, "Your sword first and then your hand," he flamed with indignation and protested that the impertinence was an "old saw," a threadbare fiction, entirely misapplied to the occasion, as Lee had stipulated the retention of his officers' side-arms. He said: "General Lee wore, on the occasion, the jeweled sword Virginia had presented him in token of his services in the Mexican War, and had I demanded that well-won weapon I would have felt like a thief. You will do me a favor if you will tell the lecturer that he could do me no meaner indignity than to persist in that dishonoring statement."

When he entered Richmond it was proposed to tender him an ovation, which he declined on the ground that it would be humiliating to the defeated and inflict an unnecessary woe to war. When Andrew Johnson, a president by the accident of assassination, proposed to arrest Lee and confine him in a casement at Fortress Monroe, Grant interposed his protecting sword and exclaimed: "No! Offer him no such insult. In his captivity he is as noble as in fight he was valiant, and he shall suffer no shame, for he is my paroled prisoner and I will safeguard him with all the power of the United States Army."

When I was stationed at Simpson Church, Jersey City, I found myself the pastor of the general's mother, and his sisters, Mrs. Corbin and Mrs. Cramer. They received me with a cheerful welcome. It was the general's habit to visit his mother on Sunday, and occasionally he came to Church. Through this relation I became intimately acquainted with the nation's hero, and he treated me with a quiet, gentle courtesy.

GRANT'S LAST DAYS.
While occupying this position, Mrs. Grant died. Knowing his close attachment for Dr. Newman, then in New York, and the fact that I had been a Confederate soldier, I felt doubly embarrassed and desired to relieve the discomfiting situation by modestly retiring my claims as pastor and suggesting Dr. Newman as the funeral celebrant. The moment I indicated my mind he rejoined: "No; I desire that you should officiate and assign to any ministers present their several parts. It is your right as my mother's pastor, it is my sisters' desire, and there are public reasons why you should conduct the funeral rites. I have only to enjoin that in making your remarks you refrain from appearing to pay my mother honor by referring to any incidents in my public career. Speak of her as she was—a simple, unostentatious Methodist, who loved the private walks of life, and desired to live in the shade. If I deserve any measure of the merits bestowed on me by my too grateful countrymen a large share of it is due to my mother and whatever in me was faulty she would have had otherwise."

THE DYING MESSAGE.
I saw the veteran of an hundred fields, a rain of tears streaming down his cheeks, stoop and take the last filial kiss from the stiffening lips of his dear old mother—to others, the Cornelia of America—and I felt that I saw him, in this endearing act, in sublimer aspect than when his saber flashed amid the sunlight of victory: "The bravest are the tenderest," "The loving are the daring."

Knowing that the shadows of death were darkening around him, he dictated a letter addressed to his old regiment, to be read at the first reunion ensuing his decease, advising the common soldierhood of America, Blue and Gray, to forget their battle-strife and bury any lingering hates, to live as comrades, and to unite to endeavor, in a fraternal patriotism to promote the peace and prosperity of the republic. He also chose three Confederate generals to act as pall-bearers at his funeral. I saw the survivors of the slain bear the hero to his sepulcher, and, then, a delegation from Robert E. Lee Camp of Veterans, Richmond, Virginia, hang the richest garland the gardens of the Old Dominion could furnish, on his tomb, and in tears turn away. The nation came to its second birth at the grave of Grant.

GENERAL LEE.
And General Lee was a man of like temper. His gentleness made him great. He never used a scurrilous word and always spoke of the opposing army as "General Grant's folks," or "our friends over the river." He was a paragon of politeness. Far from being a scented courtier he was a gentleman, who observed the silken niceties of gentle life amid the rigors of a camp as well as in the drawing rooms of Richmond's elite. A man would as soon have thought of kissing the lips of a volcano as of telling a coarse jest in his presence. He encouraged the chaplains and joined with his private soldiers in their prayer-meetings in the woody lane. So scrupulous was General Lee in observing his parole that he declined every invitation to attend public occasions that had any relation to the war or to party politics.

DURING TIMES OF TRUCE.
When a flag of truce was pending for the burial of the slain or the exchange of prisoners, friendships were speedily formed, some of which survived the war. Papers and merchandise were exchanged, coffee was drunk from an improvised loving-cup, the same pipe was passed around, and Blue and Gray rolled up in the same blanket. An hour after these camp symposiums the pickets were firing, or perchance the battle was renewed.

Various comities occurred. When Forrest made his daybreak raid on Memphis, General Washburne, commanding, made his flight to Fort Pickering in his night gown. A new uniform and the watch of Washburne were captured, which Forrest afterward returned with his compliments. General Washburne's staff in return, sent General Forrest a handsome suit of gray. This episode gave rise to General Hurlburt's bon mot. He said: "I was removed from Memphis because I could not keep Forrest out of West Tennessee. General Washburne was appointed to succeed me and he could not keep the Confederate swamp-fox out of his bed room."

A TRYST KEPT.
I sent a Mr. St. John, of Cincinnati, north to secure a special exchange for himself on his parole and Master Mason's word, and he kept his tryst and returned, through the intervention of President Lincoln, his friend, to the Southern lines. After the war I preached in Trinity, Cincinnati, a Masonic sermon, and related this incident, when, to my surprise, St. John arose and exclaimed, "And I am the man!" Afterwards, at Delhi, I became the pastor of St. John's daughter, and preached the funeral sermon of her husband I also met, as her pastor, Mrs. Hattie Martin, a daughter of Dr. Adam Poe, formerly Book Agent. While conveying a party of Federal officers to Memphis for exchange, we stopped over night at Canton, Miss. I bivaunched the prisoners in the seminary. Early next morning my sympathetic attention was directed to a giant

Give "Beauty for Ashes," for, from the funeral pyre on which we sacrificed the holocaust as an atonement for the nation's common crime, there has risen a fairer Phoenix of patriotism than the tawny eagle perched on the standard of our fratricidal strife.

COLONEL ZEKE SPAULDING.

I also recognized in the Cahaba prison Colonel Zeke Spaulding, a son of Congressman Spaulding, of Cleveland, and a college chum at the Ohio Wesleyan University. I called him to my office, and, after giving him a playful scare, revealed my identity. I put him on parole, made him my guest, and soon exchanged him. This was "bread cast upon the waters," and secured my early amnesty before the proclamation that pardoned those of my class. Your space forbids further detail concerning the brighter side of war.

Kindly acts done for Union prisoners secured me many post-bellum friends, and many times I have been introduced to the lecture platform of G. A. R. Posts through some prisoner who had passed through my hands.

BEAUTY FOR ASHES.

We owe it to mankind, after two score years of peace, to put prejudice and passion aside, North and South, and present ourselves to history and each to other as we actually were. If there is due each to his antagonist the justice of candor that the brave ever accord the brave; and we owe it to an erstwhile alienated people, now reunited, with a common country, institutions, and aspirations, to retrospect through the sores and scars of a hate that burned itself out with its own heat, and serenely make truth the polar star of all

We tender congratulations.

HAZELLING-BASHFORD—At the residence of the bride's father, near Farmdale, this county, on Thursday, Mr. W. Ruby Hazell and Miss Melbeline Bashford were married by Rev. J. W. Carter, of Lexington.

Mr. Hazell is a hustling young man, engaged in the livery business with his father, Mr. C. C. Hazell, and is a clever and popular young fellow.

His bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. Jacob Bashford and wife, of Farmdale.

She is one of Franklin county's fairest, sweetest and most popular girls. The wedding was a beautiful one, simple, quiet and dainty.

Mr. R. W. McCray was the best man, with Messrs. Allen Bashford and Minor Reddin as groomsmen. Miss Allie Durham was maid of honor, with Misses Nina Hazell and Ella Durham as bridesmaids.

The wedding presents were numerous, valuable and beautiful. A large number of friends and relatives crowded the handsome old home to do honor to the occasion.

We desire to tender to these deserving young people the heartiest congratulations. After a short wedding trip the young people will make their home in this city.

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, liver complaint, torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever nature or origin. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their results, as bronchitis, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Hoodroot, Stone root, Manroot and Queen's root, all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, while refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of natural medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Y. M. C. A. BANQUET.

Fine Audience and Witty and Appropriate Addresses.

The third annual banquet of the Y. M. C. A. was held in the gymnasium in the Masonic Temple, on Tuesday night. There was a fine attendance of members, both senior and junior, and of invited guests.

Rev. T. F. Taliaferro made the invocation.

A dainty and appetizing lunch was prepared and served by the Ladies Committee of the organization. But one or two "old bald heads" found it difficult to get away with the dainties while the handsome corps of girls were serving it.

At the close of the spread, Rev. Edwin Kagin, was called upon to act as toastmaster, in the absence of the Rev. J. M. Severance, of Georgetown, and right well did he discharge the duties, his remarks being witty and to the point, and were highly enjoyed.

The first speaker was Mr. L. W. Morris, and his theme, "The Purposes and Objects of the Y. M. C. A." He handled his subject with intelligence and force, showing the power of this organization for good, and urged enlarged facilities for its work.

Mr. Jas. T. Buford was the next speaker, and handled his theme, "Our Opportunity," with the same skill and energy with which he did his race for county attorney. He urged, in earnest words, the building of suitable quarters for the Association and the establishment of such associations throughout the State.

Mr. W. C. Marshall spoke on "The Advantages of the Y. M. C. A. to the Young Men," and spoke with vigor and logic, setting forth the great good that flows from acceptable Y. M. C. A. work.

Mr. Geo. T. Davis responded to the topic "Y. M. C. A. as a Moral Factor in the Community," showing the vast need and the undoubted power of such an organization to draw young men away from improper associations and help them to lead clean and upright lives.

Mr. M. R. Todd responded to "Future of the Y. M. C. A.," and indulged in some witty remarks as to the other speakers having stolen his thunder. He showed how such smaller cities as Georgetown, Versailles, Paris and Midway now owned or were erecting their own buildings, and urged the vital importance of this Association putting itself in position to do the work of the future by having a building of its own, specially adapted for the work. He gracefully complimented the ladies for their work.

Rev. Wm. Crowe made the closing address, and it was a gem, as it always is when this brilliant young preacher occupies the platform. His theme was "The Relation of the Young Man to the Church and the Association." He commended, in eloquent words, the work of the Association, and united with the other speakers in urging enlarged facilities for the work. His remarks, as were those of all the speakers, were interspersed with humorous and telling anecdotes.

After a rising vote of thanks to the ladies, the most successful of all the banquets given by the Association closed at 11 o'clock.

SURVEYORS HERE.

A detachment of the corps of surveyors for the Frankfort and Shelbyville Interurban Traction Co. (or more properly the Louisville and Eastern) were in this city Thursday night and Friday morning. They are hustling over their work, so that the construction of the road may be commenced. They are a lively crew of stalwart young fellows.

SAN FRANCISCO'S SCHOOL SITUATION.

Thirty-four schools were burned
after the earthquake of April 18, 1906. As a consequence more than four hundred teachers and twenty thousand children have no class rooms.

The great destruction of property, the extraordinary demands upon the public purse in every direction, and the absorption of individuals and officials in their special interests, leave the school authorities confronted with the prospect of interminable delay in the erection of new buildings unless outside aid is secured.

The following telegram was received while the great fire was raging, and the offer therein was gratefully accepted:

"Galveston, Texas.,
"April 20, 1906.
"A. Roncovieri, Supt. Public Schools, San Francisco, Cal.—
Galveston public schools were rebuilt and maintained after the great storm of 1900 by voluntary contributions from the school children of the United States.
Will you accept contributions from Galveston school children to aid in restoring your public schools. Answer.
"I. LOVENBERG,
"Supt. Schools.
"JOHN W. HOPKINS,
"Pres. School Board."

Many other generous subscriptions have been received, and in order that this movement may become known, the Mayor, the Board of Education and Superintendent of Schools have been constituted a committee to be called the School Reconstruction Committee, empowered to receive such subscriptions as may be tendered for the purpose of rebuilding our destroyed schools.

For the present, schools are being conducted in tents furnished by the U. S. military authorities in Golden Gate Park. Soldiers serve as truant officers; a drill-sergeant puts the boys through setting-up exercises. Stow lake furnishes opportunity for swimming lessons, so that the boys and girls are enjoying the summer season; but the cold winds of the winter season and the driving rains will transform this enjoyment to misery. Temporary structures must be utilized, but the great need is expedition in the erection of our permanent schoolhouses.

The first cash contribution came from the boys and girls of Broken Arrow, Creek Nation, Indian Territory—a beautiful illustration of the kinship of the peoples of our beloved country.

Portland, Oregon, has sent us word that her citizens will build for us a school building to be named the Portland School.

San Francisco is a cosmopolitan city to a degree hardly appreciated beyond her gates, except by those thousands of tourists who have learned to love our beautiful city by the Golden Gate through a brief sojourn in our midst. The world, therefore, has an interest in us to an unusual extent, and we confidently await the assistance we so sorely need.

These are the facts:

Thirty-four buildings destroyed.
General impairment of finances.
$8,000,000 needed to rebuild schoolhouses.

More than 400 teachers without employment.

Over 20,000 children without school accommodation.

The School Reconstruction Committee stands ready to supply printed matter, plans for raising funds in schools, cities, counties, or States; will furnish literary articles for educational publications and assist in every way the general movement to rebuild San Francisco's schoolhouses.

The School Reconstruction Committee has its headquarters in the Emerson School Building, Pine
and Scott streets, San Francisco, where all communications should be addressed. Each and every one into whose hands this appeal may come is asked to further this movement by all means in his power.

EUGENE E. SCHMIDT,
Mayor.

AARON ALTMANN,

Pres. Board of Education.

Supt. of Schools.

construction Committee.

INDIGESTION'S RECORD

"The best remedy I can prescribe for your indigestion, madam, is Green's August Flower.
I know of several other physicians who prescribe it regularly."

Indigestion is making an awful record as a cause of sudden deaths. It is beating heart-failure in its ghastly harvest.
You read in the papers daily of apparently healthy and even robust men being suddenly attacked with acute indigestion after enjoying a hearty meal, and of their dying in many cases before a physician could be called in.

This should be a warning to you who suffer with regular or periodical attacks of indigestion. If these unfortunate victims of acute indigestion had taken a small dose of Green's August Flower before or after their meals they would not have fallen a prey to such sudden seizures.
August Flower prevents indigestion by creating good digestion. It also regulates the liver, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system in a natural way.

Two sizes, 50c and 75c. All druggists.
